LIBRARIES OFFERS WORKSHOPS ON QUALTRICS ONLINE SURVEY SOFTWARE

Research Data Services of Syracuse University Libraries will offer a series of workshops on using the Qualtrics online survey software, which is available to Syracuse University faculty, staff and students. Qualtrics enables users to create and distribute complex surveys and analyze responses from a single online platform.

Workshops are open to all Syracuse University faculty, staff and students, and there is no charge for attending. All sessions will be held in 046 Bird Library (ETC). Participants may attend a single session or all three in the series. To register, see Qualtrics Workshop Registration.

The workshop schedule is as follows:

Session 1: March 7, 2 - 3 p.m.

Basics of Qualtrics — navigation in Qualtrics, basic options, creating questions, testing the survey, downloading data.

Session 2: March 21, 2 - 3 p.m.

Advanced Question Design — display/skip logic, embedded data, randomizing response choices.

Session 3: April 4, 2 - 3 p.m.

Survey Flow — randomizing respondents and treatments.
